PREFACE

Yellow and brown--a golden sky lingers over a dark restless sea. From dreams to reality. We dream of things to come and the sky is sunshine gold. But dreams are only fantasies, and sometimes the dark waves of reality slow the progress of our dreams.

We at Danville Junior College know that this is true. It has taken a long time to get our beautiful, expanding campus and many problems have slowed the progress, but now it has become true. As students, we also have dreams. Completing this year at DJC is one that has become a reality.

The CHRONICLE hopes it has captured some of the highlights of this year. It is our desire that, as you look through the CHRONICLE, it will bring memories that are special to you. We hope it will help you remember this year as a golden dream that finally has become a reality.

Sincerely,

Editor-in-Chief

FROM DREAMS TO REALITY

The CHRONICLE, Volume 6

has also evolved from dreams to reality.
We have been well aware of its growing pains and hope that very few apologies are needed.

DEDICATION

D. J. C. FIRST FOREIGN STUDENT RECEIVES ASSOCIATE DEGREE

At 1967 Commencement, Miss Kelly Mavres from Canea, Crete, received her diploma. Congratulating her as the first foreign student to graduate from D.J.C. are Dr. Lowell Fisher, Commencement speaker, and President Mary Miller.

DANVILLE JUNIOR COLLEGE RECEIVES NORTH CENTRAL ACCREDITATION

Welcoming members of an expanding faculty.

FROM DREAMS

From June 1, 1967, until January 1, 1968, in Head Start.

Middle November, 1967, until first of January, 1968, in the Library.

LIBRARY

The busy librarians are Dean Sherman Zelinsky; Mrs. Hazel Lee, assistant librarian; and Carolyn Frazier and Larry Lawlyes.

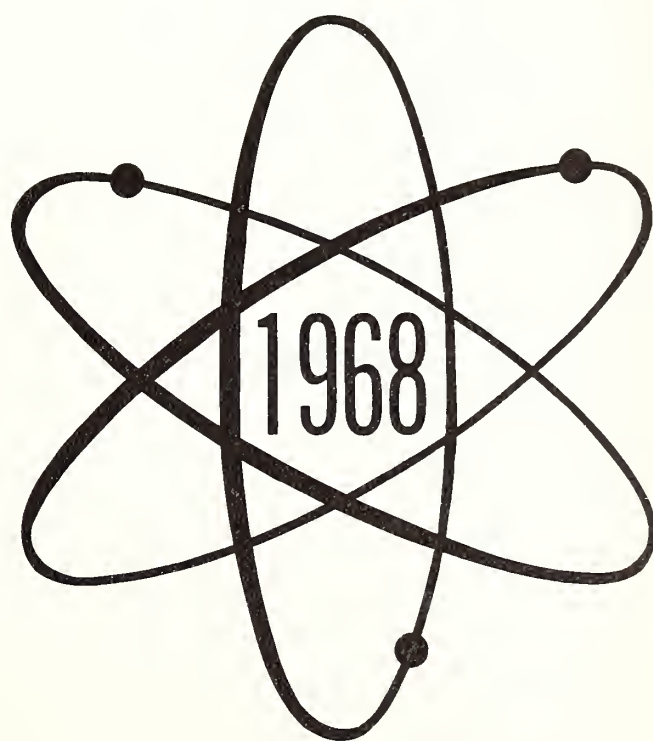

For the second consecutive year, the Danville Kiwanis has given the proceeds from its Travel and Adventure Series to the Junior College Library. Mr. Al Whitlaw, Kiwanis president, is seen presenting the check to Mr. Sherman Zelinsky, Dean of Library Services.

Again this year a sum of $400 was given to the college library by an anonymous donor in appreciation of instructors Mrs. Alice Lee Morrison, English Chairman, and Mr. William Langas, History Chairman. The stipulation was that this sum be equally divided between Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Langas for book purchases of their own personal choice for addition to the college library.

SPEECH AND HEARING CLINIC

A speech and hearing clinic has been established in the Adult Education Building and is directed by Max B. McDermott, Speech Pathologist. The program services the students in the Adult, Baccalaureate, and Occupation divisions. Students are screened for speech and hearing problems. Following such examination, students are selected for enrollment in a therapy program, based upon the severity of their problem. Most therapy is individual, though some students may be enrolled in group therapy. A speech or hearing defect, even a minor one, is a major occupational as well as a social handicap.

Max McDermott administers an examination of the oral structure of Nancy Kelly to determine the adequacy of the mechanism for speech production.
